

Scientific Committee of the IPA (SCIPA)

Online Presentation

SCIPA invites scientific chairs, their delegates and other interested parties to an online presentation by

Professor Marianne Leuzinger-Bohleber

The relevance of the Open-Door Review III and subsequent research findings to the contemporary psychoanalyst

Chaired by A/Professor Timothy Keogh

Date: Saturday, 7th September 2024 (1400 hours CEST)

Pre-registration required

The publication of the Open-Door Review III represented a landmark for psychoanalysis in establishing the scientific basis of its concepts and methods. In this presentation Sigourney Award recipient Professor Leuzinger Bohleber will explain the purpose of the project which resulted in its publication and will suggest its relevance and that of subsequent pluralistic research to the contemporary psychoanalyst and to those who wish to promote a contemporary image of psychoanalysis.

The seminar will allow for discussion about the presentation and its implications for in-reach and out-reach activities.
